

DELAWARE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
JOB OPENING

Opening Date: October 1, 2019      Closing Date: October 8, 2019

DEPUTY ATTORNEY GENERAL
“Commander of the Child Predator Task Force”
Criminal Division
Kent County

Description of Duties:

The Criminal Division, in Kent County, seeks a Deputy Attorney General to serve as the statewide Commander of the Child Predator Task Force. The Child Predator Task Force is a partnership between the Delaware Department of Justice, the Delaware State Police and the United States Attorney’s Office – together with affiliate law enforcement agencies – whose mission is to work together to pursue, investigate and prosecute technology-facilitated child sexual exploitation and victimization in Delaware. The Task Force Commander is responsible for the supervision and management of the members of Task Force and will work directly with the Delaware State Police High Tech Crimes Unit. There is considerable teamwork required in identifying, investigating and prosecuting child sexual exploitation cases. The Task Force Commander will be required to attend appropriate trainings to stay current with cutting edge technology as it relates to exploitation of children. The Commander is required to attend quarterly Internet Crimes Against Children (“ICAC”) Commander’s meetings that rotate around the country. The Task Force Commander is responsible for promoting online safety through presentations to school children, parent groups, teachers and the community at large. Finally, the Task Force Commander is responsible for the financial management of the unit, including grant management.

Successful candidates should have trial and/or prior sex crimes experience. Strengths should include the ability to evaluate criminal cases, determine resolutions, and anticipate legal issues in an ever-changing area of the law. Must have or be able to develop a good working relationship with local and national law enforcement. This position requires both leadership qualities and substantial interpersonal skills. Must be a member of the Delaware Bar.
